ABSTRACT

The report presents an unclassified, unlimited bibliography of technical reports and other publications on research conducted by the Occupational Research Division, Air Force Human Resources Laboratory (AFHRL). The cited references cover the period July 1957, to March 1974, and are compiled chronologically by year and within the year. The mission of the division supports work force development, evaluation, and utilization through studies on: methods for collecting, analyzing, and retrieving occupational information; structuring work into jobs, specialties, career ladders, and broader management categories; establishing grade, pay, training, education, experience, and other job requirements; organizational and management analyses; measuring worker experience, performance, potential, and satisfaction; task-oriented criterion development; establishing career programs and reassignment systems. The references are not annotated. Reports listed in the bibliography may be obtained on request by qualified requestors; or, information on obtaining the report will be provided. (Author/AJ)
